Article 1 Purpose
KSER Foundation (KSER) is committed to the highest ethical standards. Indeed, based on the unique trust placed in KSER to serve the public good through radio broadcasting, we have a special obligation to act ethically.

The success of KSER and our reputation depend upon the ethical conduct of everyone affiliated with the KSER Foundation. Volunteers, staff, and representatives set an example for each other and the general public by their pursuit of excellence in high standards of performance, professionalism, and ethical conduct.

This KSER Code of Ethics (Code) is based on our mission to advance the common good in our community through public radio and other services dedicated to arts, ideas and civic engagement. The code is guided by our fundamental values of Service to the community, Local impact, Effectiveness in what we do, Integrity in all our affairs, Excellence in the quality of our work, and a commitment to provide Unique programming not heard elsewhere.

We are mindful that our core values must be clearly articulated, communicated and continuously reinforced. While no document can anticipate all of the challenges that may arise, this Code of Ethics communicates key guidelines and will assist KSER volunteers, staff and representatives in making good decisions that are ethical and in accordance with applicable legal requirements. All are encouraged to discuss any questions or concerns they have with their supervisor or the person designated by the Board as the Ethics officer.

KSER’s Volunteer Handbook is given to all volunteers and outlines important specific duties and expectations. This Code of Ethics is intended to supplement the policies and guidance in the Volunteer Handbook. Please consult with the General Manager or KSER Board President if there is any question or confusion regarding either the Volunteer Handbook or this Code of Ethics.
